Cairo American College (CAC) is an independent coeducational day school, which offers an educational program from prekindergarten through grade 12 for students of all nationalities. The School was founded in 1945. The school year runs from end of August to mid-June.

Organization: 10-member Board of Trustees, elected or appointed, governs the School.

Curriculum: Cairo American College offers a rigorous educational program, which follows a general U.S. standards-referenced curriculum model. Starting in the eleventh grade, students may elect to pursue the International Baccalaureate Diploma. School instruction is in English. World languages include Arabic, French, and Spanish. Arabic is taught in grades 1-12; French and Spanish are offered in grades 6-12. Instruction in English-as-a-second- language is offered in grades 1-10. Studies include the history and culture of Egypt, and technology is integrated into the curriculum school-wide. CAC is a non-sectarian institution. 98% of CAC graduates go on to colleges and universities in the United States or other countries. Cairo American College holds dual accreditation from the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools and Council of International School.

Faculty: In the 2016-2017 school year, there are 118 full-time and 11 part-time faculty members, including 54 U.S. citizens, 24 host-country nationals, and 40 third-country nationals.

Of the total, 300 were U.S. citizens, 188 were host-country nationals, and 345 were of other nationalities. Of the U.S. enrollment, 123 were dependents of U.S. government direct-hire or contract employees and 177 of either U.S. business and foundation employees or other private U.S. citizens.

Facilities: Cairo American College is located on eleven acres in Maadi, a suburb about ten km southeast of Cairo. The instructional and cocurricular programs take place in eight buildings including fourteen science labs, two playing fields, playgrounds, an all-weather track, a heated swimming pool, and a multipurpose basketball/volleyball court. A 520-seat theater houses the drama and dance classes, supplemented by music and art classes in separate buildings. Two athletic facilities encompass gymnasias, a weight room, classrooms, and office and conference spaces. Two state-of-the-art library/media centers serve the campus, one for grades K-5 and one for middle and high school, as do multiple computer labs located throughout the School. CAC continues with major campus renovation. Phase I: new elementary school was completed in the summer of 2010. Phase II: new middle school was completed in the summer of 2012. Phase III - renovation of the HS building began during the summer of 2016 for a fall 2017 completion.
